Dear Mr. Kreindler:

Reference the Sabena 707 accident at Brussels on February 15, 1961, a report from our Embassy in Brussels has been received to the following effect:

Belgian Aeronautic Administration officials state that technical tests are still being conducted in Belgium, and elsewhere, of components of the aircraft concerned. No positive information has been revealed by tests conducted to date. A final report on the accident will not be issued until all test possibilities have been exhausted. Our Embassy was unable to obtain any estimate as to when the investigation will be completed.

I will notify you when any further information is available.

Sincerely yours,

Henry T. Snowdon
Chief
Aviation Division
